Stewardship & the Sunday Readings
July 11th – from Deuteronomy

“No, it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out.” Moses is imploing those he led out of Egypt to return to God with all their heart and soul. He reminds them that the way to do this is not found in some distant or far-off place. So it is with stewardship. It is already in our mouths and in our hearts; we have only to carry it out.

Respect Life News

For the very reason that God is love and man is his image we understand the person’s profound identity, his vocation to love. Human beings are made for love; their lives are completely fulfilled only if they are lived in love. -- Pope Benedict XVI, Message to Cardinal Stanislaw Rylko on the Occasion of the 10th International Youth Form (3-20-20).

July 11 – 15th Sunday of Ordinary Time
Luke 10:25-37

“Which one of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers’ victim?” He answered, “The one who treated him with mercy.”

“Rabbi, why do Jews always answer a question with a question?” The rabbi responded, “And why shouldn’t we?” Jesus is a Jew. When the scholar of the (Jewish) law asked him, “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus answered with a question, “What is written in the law?” The scholar quotes Deuteronomy 6:5, You shall love the Lord your God with your whole heart, being, strength and mind and Leviticus 19:19 . . . and your neighbor as yourself. The scholar knew the law. It had been handed down by Moses. But the scholar (a lawyer) looks for a loophole: “Who is my neighbor?” Jesus answers this question with the story of the Good Samaritan, then asks, “Which one, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robber’s victim?” The scholar answers, “The one who treated him with mercy.” The scholar had no other choice. If we are true believers in Jesus, neither do we. Jesus challenges us to want for our neighbor what we want ourselves. And everyone is our neighbor, no matter how unlovable they may be.

Support Our Troops: Please pray for our troops and their families: Benjamin P. Nickell; Derek C. Meyer, USN (grandson of Tom & Carol Schweitzer).
