Respect Life News

The true measure of humanity is essentially determined in relationship to suffering and to the sufferer . . . A society unable to accept its suffering members and incapable of helping to share their suffering and to ear it inwardly through 'com-passion' is a cruel and inhuman society.

This year's catechetical theme reflects the commitment of the Church to help pastors, families, catechists and teachers to deepen their understanding of the Sacrament of Matrimony and the riches that flow from living it to the fullest.

Biblical Roots of Marriage God instituted marriage as the pinnacle of creation. On the sixth day the Book of Genesis tells us: "God created man in his image; in the divine image he created him; male and female he created them. God blessed them, saying: 'Be fertile and multiply, fill the earth and subdue it.'" In the second creation story, God says that "it is not good for man to be alone. I will make a suitable partner for him." Woman is man's equal in dignity and the one closest to his heart. Because man and woman were created for one another, "a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one flesh." Scripture teaches that marriage is not a mere human institution, but something God established from the foundation of world.

Sin not only brought about a break with God, but it also ruptured the original communion between man and woman. Adam and Eve blamed each another for what had happened and were embarrassed. The Old Testament shows how sin affected the goodness of marriage. There is the polygamy of the patriarchs and kings. Moses allowed divorce because of the people's "hardness of heart" Men and women did not treat one another with integrity, honor and love as God had intended. Nonetheless, while sin marred the goodness of marriage, it did not destroy it (www.foryourmarriage.org).

CHLOW

Children's Liturgy of the Word is celebrated to help our young parishioners understand the Sunday readings. Children are dismissed before the first reading to listen to the Word, learn the meaning for their lives, complete an activity and pray together. The group returns for the Eucharist. The adult volunteer has access to several resources to help them explain the readings as well as develop their own faith understanding. One of our CHLOW ministers, Valida Beckman, will offer information and training about this opportunity on Thursday, August 26 at 7:00 in the parish office. Please call the parish office and talk to Mrs. Meyer if you are interested. We need a few more leaders to alternate weekends with our volunteers. Thank you.

Important Date: First Communion will be Sunday, May 1st, 2011 at the 11:00 a.m. Mass. Mark your calendars.

Simplicity

"Lives simply so that others may simply live"
--Blessed Mother Theresa

Embracing a simpler lifestyle enables us to live more generously. Simple living is also the antidote for "affluenza," the social disease caused by rampant consumerism and materialism.

A Prayer For Simplicity: Lord, grant me the grace to be free from the excesses of this life. Let me not get caught up with the desire for wealth. Keep my heart and mind free to love and serve you. Amen.
